For tax purposes, cash distributions paid on January 15, 2008 are considered to be income in 2007.

Trust Units Held Within an RRSP, RRIF, RESP or DPSP

For investors who hold Fund units within a Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP), Registered Retirement Income Fund (RRIF), Registered Education Savings Plan (RESP), or Deferred Profit Sharing Plan (DPSP), income earned in respect of the Fund units held within the plan is not subject to tax in the year earned. No amounts are required to be reported on the 2007 T1 Income Tax Return for these Fund units. Instead, the amount of capital and any income earned in the plan is taxed only on withdrawal from the plan.

Trust Units Held Outside of an RRSP, RRIF, RESP or DPSP

Investors who hold Fund units outside of an RRSP, RRIF, RESP or DPSP and who received cash distributions in 2007 will receive a T3 Supplementary Slip prior to March 31, 2008. Please note that if the Fund units are registered in the investor's name, the T3 will be sent directly from the Fund's transfer agent to the unitholder and if the Fund units are held in the name of a broker or intermediary, the T3 will be sent from the Fund's transfer agent to the broker or intermediary.

Adjusted Cost Base

Investors who hold Fund units are required to reduce the Adjusted Cost Base of their units by the cumulative amount of any distributions received in the form of Return of Capital. The Adjusted Cost Base is used in calculating capital gains and losses on the sale of units that are held as capital property by the owner.

Distribution Reinvestment Plan

For investors who participated in the Distribution Reinvestment Plan, the amounts received and subsequently reinvested in the Fund are subject to tax in accordance with the cash distribution summary. The Adjusted Cost Base of the units will be increased by the amounts reinvested.

The 2007 distributions are not considered Qualifying Dividends under the Jobs and Growth Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2003. Please note that 2007 distributions are comprised of U.S. source income, foreign source income, and return of capital for U.S. tax purposes. For U.S. purposes, the Fund is taxed as a partnership. U.S. investors who hold Fund units registered in the investor's name and who received cash distributions in 2007 will receive a K-1 Form "Partner's Share of Income, Deductions, Credits, etc." directly from the Fund prior to March 15, 2008. When the K-1's have been distributed to these registered unitholders, we will notify investors by way of updating this information bulletin. If the Fund units are held in the name of a broker or intermediary, the investor will receive their tax forms as prepared by their broker, bank, or other intermediary.

For tax purposes, cash distributions received on January 15, 2008 are considered to be income in 2007.

Adjusted Cost Base

Investors who hold Fund units are required to reduce the Adjusted Cost Base of their units by the cumulative amount of any distributions received in the form of Return of Capital. The Adjusted Cost Base is used in calculating capital gains and losses on the sale of units that are held as capital property by the owner.
